Editor's Message

The theme of the 1970 Lamplighter, "It was a very good year" summarizes certain events of the past year, not just at Fall Mountain Regional but outside our school. Many advances have been made in every aspect of our lives and looking to the future we see many possibilities which can only be made realities through the striving of our generation. We hold the future in our hands and with the help and guidance of the people around us; we can make each year better.

Madeline Wilson, Co-Editor-in-Chief.

THE SECOND SHEPHERDS' PLAY Medieval Mystery Play

The Public Speaking class this year produced The Second Shepherd's Play for the Christmas season.

The group kept to the simplicity of the original performance by keeping the scenery at a minimum. Important roles were played by Linda O'Brien and Robert Sullivan, a stand-in for Brian Putnam, as Gil and Mals, an unscrupulous husband and wife team. Melvin McPerson, Julie Tufts, Patricia Farley, Joyce Campbell, and Holly Swift played the simple, honest English shepherds.

Mary Kohler was a calm and meditative Mary, while Roxanne Bailey, Eileen Bascom, and Viki Welch played the angels who brought the glad tidings of Christmas to the sleeping shepherds.

CAREER DAY AND COLLEGE NIGHT

educational matters. The guidance counselors
sponsored this program to offer students and parents
an opportunity to become acquainted with various colleges and careers offered
throughout the country.
